

MUSICAL COMEDY: Andrew Lorand, left, and Preston Gould will appear at the Camarillo Cafe on Friday.

Musical comedy duo to perform

From staff reports

Camarillo Cafe will present the musical duo Clean 'n' Jerk and guitarist/singer Scott Grusin at the Freedom Center on Friday.

Clean 'n' Jerk is a musical/comedy teaming of Andrew Lorand, guitar/vocalist, and Preston Gould, trumpet, flugelhorn and vocalist.

"Their quick wit, satire and sarcasm always keep their audiences on the edge of their seats, straining to hear every word over the unusual blend of sound produced by the guitar and trumpet," said Jack Zigray, the cafe's producer.

"Their songs range from 'Betty Mop (Cow)' to 'Hostess Twinkies' to an irate Jewish mother leaving a message on her child's answering machine 'You Never Call.'"

Grusin, who also plays the mandolin and harmonica as well as six-and 12-string and slide guitars, focuses on authentic turn-of-the-century Mississippi delta and old-time blues music.

The headliners take the stage at 9 p.m. Admission is $5.

The evening's activities will start at 8 p.m. with an open microphone available to the first three audience members who sign up. Each performer is limited to 10 minutes.

The Freedom Center is at 515 Eubanks St. at the Camarillo Airport.

The cafe has a no alcohol and no smoking policy.

Sponsored by the Pleasant Valley Recreation and Park District, the cafe programs are presented on the third Friday of the month.

For more information, call 482-1996.